SUBJECT : Blue Cross of Wisconsin - Bandstand
CARL ZEIDLER PARK

At its meeting of July 7, 1977, the Milwaukee County Park Commission approved acceptance of a bandstand to be built at Carl Zeidler Park. It is being donated to Milwaukee County by the Blue Cross of Wisconsin. The structure is approximately 20' in diameter, and the base and floor will be constructed of concrete and brick; the roof and supports will be of frame construction. It is estimated to cost $10,000.

Blue Cross will design and build the structure at no expense to Milwaukee County. It is their intent to complete the bandstand and turn it over to Milwaukee County on or before August 15, 1977.

The only condition of the donor, is that a small plaque be permitted to be attached which would identify the structure as "The Blue Cross of Wisconsin Bandstand."

No additional County appropriations are anticipated for initial development or for routine maintenance of this facility.

Dear Mr. Ament:

Recently, twenty-five former members of The City Club of Milwaukee had their annual Christmas lunch, a custom which was started a number of years ago when the City Club gave up its dining facilities. Most of the people who attended the luncheon knew Mr. Tiefenthaler well for many years and are great admirers of him.

The proposal to name a park for Mr. Tiefenthaler was discussed at the meeting and I was requested to write to you that this group, who knew Mr. Tiefenthaler's great interest in the outdoors, were delighted at the proposal to name a park for him. They all hope that the County Board will approve the action taken by the Park Commission.

Very truly yours,

COUNTY OF MILWAUKEE
INTER-OFFICE COMMUNICATION 2342 R1

DATE : January 13, 1978
TO : Mrs. Viola Williams, Clerk, Committee on Parks, Recreation & Culture
FROM : Mr. Robert J. Mikula, General Manager, Parks
SUBJECT : County Board File No. 75-732(a) - Naming of Parksite No. 54

At the 1/3/78 meeting of your committee additional data was requested in regard to naming of parksites. The following is for your information.

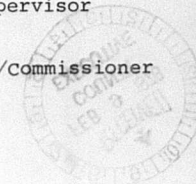

In 1968 the Milwaukee County Park Commission adopted guidelines for the naming of Milwaukee County parks, as follows:

- 1) Identification with a local person who participated in park affairs and made major contribution to the County Park System. In using local individual names for parks, a reasonable period of time should elapse after the person's demise.
- 2) The geographic location or historical significance of the park area.
- 3) Identification with an Indian tribe.

Generally speaking, the first guideline has been followed by using the names of deceased park commissioners for those parks that relate, as much as possible, to that specific Commissioner's principal residence or area of interest: e.g., A. C. Clas was an early commissioner who was an architect/city planner involved with the civic center development, hence his name was given to the park immediately south of the Courthouse.

There are four deceased park commissioners who have not yet been honored by having their names memorialized as a park site:

ALBERT C. HANSON (1880-1963)	1921-27	Nurseryman/Mayor
RICHARD S. FALK (1913-1971)	1947-65	Sports Activist/ Civic Leader
HERBERT G. FROEMMING (1896-1971)	1955-68	Florist/Supervisor
CLINTON E. ROSE (1918-1977)	1972-76	Supervisor/Commissioner

Mrs. Viola Williams--#2

1/13/78

Supervisor Casey has submitted a request to the Park Commission to name the House of Correction park area on South 51st Street after Commissioner-Supervisor Froemming.

Supervisor Pitts has a request in to name the Carver Park expansion area after Commissioner-Supervisor Clinton E. Rose.

Commissioner Falk's name was considered for former Parksite 61, now known as John L. Doyne Park.

Prior to recommending names for Parksite 54 and the north side pool site, the Park Commission requested recommendations from the local elected supervisors. Supervisor Pitts recommended Commissioner-Supervisor Moody's name for the pool site and Supervisor Henningsen recommended Leo Tiefenthaler's name for Parksite 54. The Park Naming Committee and the Park Commission concurred with these recommendations. Attached is a biographical sheet for Leo Tiefenthaler for your information.

Leo Tiefenthaler was born in Milwaukee on July 3, 1880 and died on November 10, 1974 at the age of 94. All his life he lived at the family homestead at 2425 W. McKinley Avenue which is just two blocks from the Milwaukee County neighborhood park proposed to be named after him.

Leo Tiefenthaler was municipal reference librarian from 1911 - 1917. He served as civic secretary of the City Club since 1917 which was established in 1908 to oversee local government. He was often called the "watchdog of government." He probably attended more city and county meetings than any other person in Milwaukee.

He received countless honors some of which are listed below:

- 1971 - Metropolitan Milwaukee Civic Alliance Distinguished Service Award.
- 1964 - Milwaukee Press Club Headliner Award.
- 1964 - William C. Frye Community Service Award.
- 1963 - Eagles Club Annual Civic Service Award.
- 1960 - Milwaukee County Board Resolution No. 60-667 honoring him for his 43 years of service.

His name has been recommended by Supervisor Paul A. Henningsen, and a letter from Rudolph Witte of the Midtown Neighborhood Association indicated that organization also recommends that the name Leo Tiefenthaler be given to Park Site 54.
