8 Facility
9

11 WHEREAS, Felmers O. Chaney Correctional Center (FCCC) opened in 2000
12 and is named after late community activist Felmers O. Chaney who believed that people 13 could change if they are provided the opportunity, resources, and direction; and 14

15 WHEREAS, FCCC is a minimum-security 100-bed pre-release facility for adult
16 men transitioning from the Wisconsin Correctional System (WCS) back into the 17 community; and
18

19 WHEREAS, residents housed at FCCC are eligible to participate in work release

24 treatment, mental health treatment, housing assistance, assistance with earning their 25 high school equivalency diploma, and more; and

28 agencies, and governmental agencies to provide residents with opportunities to give 29 back to the community, enhance their work skills, social skills, and improve their 30 success upon reentering society; and 31

32 WHEREAS, the Wisconsin Legislature adopted 2017 Wisconsin Act 185
33 authorizing the closure of Lincoln Hills and Copper Lakes by July 1, 2021, and building

49

50 WHEREAS, the Felmers O. Chaney Advocacy Board provided testimony to the 51 Senate Committee on Judiciary and Public Safety stating that "Eliminating 100 beds at a 52 pre-release center in Milwaukee would be a tragic mistake. In 2018, 29 percent of all

54 ; and
55

56 WHEREAS, the Felmers O. Chaney Advocacy Board also provided 11

58 including FCCC; and
59

60 WHEREAS, FCCC provides critical support services to set men up for success
61 as they reintegrate into society and return to their families, and the closure of FCCC
62 would be detrimental to men awaiting release, the community, and the employers that 63 help support their transition as well; and 64

65 WHEREAS, the Committee on Intergovernmental Relations (IGR), at its meeting
66 of May 17, 2022, laid over File No. 22-600 for one meeting (vote 5-0); and 67

68 WHEREAS, the Committee on IGR, at its meeting of July 11, 2022,

79

80 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, the Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors
