AN ORDINANCE

Ann Richmond, being the first duly sworn on oath, says that she is the Publisher of THE DAILY REPORTER, which is a public newspaper of general circulation, printed and published daily in the English language in the City of Milwaukee, in said county, and fully complying with the laws of Wisconsin, relating to the publication of legal notices; that the notice of which the printed one attached is a true copy, which was clipped from the said newspaper, was inserted and published in said newspaper on

The County Board of Supervisors of the County of Milwaukee does ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20.01 of the General Ordinances of Milwaukee County is amended as follows:

20.01 The cost of maintenance for prisoners confined in county jail or the house of correction for violation of city or village ordinances, resolutions or bylaws is hereby fixed at the per diem cost of each establishment as determined by the county department of administration on April 1 of each year and based upon out of pocket expenses of the preceding calendar year for each separate institution. The sheriff and superintendent of the house of correction, respectively, shall at regular intervals bill cities and villages for the above maintenance charges of their prisoners, and shall specify therein such data as may reasonably be required for such purposes.

board rate. In addition, the superintendent of the house of correction is authorized to impose a reasonable charge, not to exceed costs, for random urine tests for controlled substances, which result in a positive finding. And if the result of the random test is positive, the superintendent may impose a reasonable charge, not to exceed the cost for regular follow-up urine tests for all controlled substances. The county department of administration on April 1 of each year shall render a report to the county board detailing the costs of maintenance and board experienced for the preceding calendar year. The sheriff and superintendent of the house of correction shall charge the account of each prisoner gainfully employed accordingly and shall collect and disburse to the county treasurer all such proceeds from the wages or salaries of employed prisoners. Any Huber Inmate who parks a vehicle at the County Correctional Facility South shall be allowed to park without charge.
