

Resume

Clarence P. Nicholas

[REDACTED]

Milwaukee, WI [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

A life-time member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP); 1st Vice President of the Milwaukee Branch NAACP, once served as the education chair, assistant, and secretary of the Milwaukee Branch.

A retired MPS Teacher of 40 years (2 years as principal), BS.Ed., MS.Ed. Earned a Principal's License and completed Course work in Doctoral Studies at Cardinal Stritch University Milwaukee for Dual License: District/Superintendent.

A Certified Para-Legal. Piloted, incorporated the former Cornerstone Achievement Academy, Inc. Partnership School - Milwaukee Public School District.

Deacon and Sunday School Superintendent of Mount Moriah Missionary Baptist Church - Milwaukee. Vice-President of Mount Moriah Community Development Corporation.

Served as a NAACP Ethics Board Representative on the Milwaukee County Ethics Board with term ending February 2020 and currently serves on the City of Milwaukee Ethics Board.

Worked in the School of Liberal Arts & Sciences at MATC for four years, and formerly a part-time teacher at MATC School of Pre-College (GED/Social Studies).

Married, wife, Dr. Gloria Pitchford-Nicholas, former Dean of Milwaukee Area Technical College Pre-College. Four daughters, four granddaughters and two grandsons.

[REDACTED]