All county employees deserve better compensation. As long as this is not to replace regular pay increases.

Often the Milwaukee County budget has been balanced on the backs of its employees. Any pay increase is well deserved.

Isn't Milwaukee County in violation of Milwaukee County ordinance 17.10 currently when it denies its employees step increases after 2080 hours of meritorious service in their classification? Before changing over to a new compensation system shouldn't current employees who have been passed over for advancement in their pay grades be put at the appropriate step? Willfully violating a county ordinance would be unlawful.

Step raises are an ordinance. Why can the zoo continually violate this ordinance. Keep step raises and bring every employee up to where they should be.
