

2022 MCDA Vendor Report

United Community Center Transportation Services

- The United Community Center Transportation program provides transportation to and from the UCC Senior Center for any members in need of transportation who live in Milwaukee County 5 days per week.
- Transportation is also available for scheduled social and recreational outings throughout the year.
- We have safety protocols to keep anyone utilizing our transportation safe. Sanitizing before and after using our buses. Masks are required at all times per county regulations.

Please share a success from the first six months of 2022.

- Seniors were able to continue coming to the Senior Center and we started our social outings every month. This is something that they really missed the last 2 years.
- We have been able to offer our services without any outbreaks or concerns.

Please share a challenge from the first six months of 2022.

- We have not been able to receive the buses we were expecting for 2021 due to supply shortages.

Please tell us about your plans for the rest of the year.

- Our plans for the rest of 2022 is continue to serve our older adults by providing transportation to our center for them to participate in recreational activities and help to keep them active and healthy as well as connecting them with resources in the community.
