

Elizabeth J. Lentini

Whitefish Bay, WI 53217

Employment Status:

- Retired (January 2017)

Volunteer Activities:

current

- League of Women Voters of Milwaukee County - high school and incarcerated persons voter registration, presenter on electoral college issues, candidate forums.
- First Unitarian Church of Milwaukee – current: co-chair, Endowment Fund Task Force, usher, co-chair, Guest House Dinner committee; previously: co-chair, Senior Minister Search Committee, Board of Trustees (incl. President), Nominating Committee, Worship Associate, fundraising, RE assistant, etc
- Copy Editor – Introduction to Business Ethics by Kevin Gibson 2023 Cambridge University Press (2nd Edition); Moderation in Facebook Groups - PhD dissertation (2022) Anna Gibson; Perspectives on Ethical Leadership – proceedings of the James A. and Linda R. Mitchell Forum on Ethical Leadership in Financial Services (2018 – 2020).

Work Experience:

Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, Milwaukee WI (1997-2017)

Securities and Code of Ethics Compliance:

2010 - 2017: Chief Compliance Officer and Senior Securities and Code of Ethics Compliance Officer – Responsible for all aspects of securities trading and Code of Ethics compliance by employees responsible for public, private, real estate general fund investments for NM.

Private Placement Transactions:

1997-2010: Assistant General Counsel – Legal counsel for NM private placement investment transactions

Public Finance Attorney (1985-1997) – served as bond counsel, underwriter’s counsel and/or disclosure counsel to a wide variety of public entities (including but not limited to the State of Colorado, various counties, cities, school districts and other municipal and special purpose entities) to finance a wide variety of projects, including airports, schools, redevelopment, etc. Drafted legislation to facilitate the foregoing.

1992 – 1997: Hogan & Hartson, LLP, Denver, CO, Counsel

1985 – 1992: Davis, Graham & Stubbs, Denver, CO, Partner (1992); Associate (1985 – 1991)

Education:

- Boston College Law School
J.D. 1985
- Smith College, Northampton MA
B.A. cum laude 1979 – Government

Personal:

- Married since 1985 to Kevin Gibson, professor emeritus Marquette University Philosophy Department (business ethics and general applied ethics)
- Two adult children