Chair & Supervisors,

As an out and proud gay man, co-chair of Milwaukee County's LGBTQIA+ Network Resource Group alongside Tony MacLellan and sponsor Maggie Daun, and Milwaukee County resident & employee, I wholeheartedly and passionately support the resolution to fly the Intersex Progress Pride flag at County buildings and locations during the entire month of June, in support of Pride Month.

As someone that was born in Conway, Arkansas in 1990, and grew-up in Appleton, WI for most of my childhood, I do not recall seeing many visible symbols of acceptance for myself, and the LGBTQIA+ community. I do remember, however, not feeling widely accepted in my community when I realized I was gay, and remaining fearful of the public, friends, and family treating me differently if they were to find out, for far too long.

This resolution, if passed, will show that Milwaukee County welcomes, supports, sees, and values LGBTQIA+ people. It aligns with Milwaukee County's values.

While there is still a lot of work to do to properly support and meet the needs of Milwaukee County's LGBTQIA+ population, this is a step in the right direction.
