County Ordinance No. 16-4  File No. 16-50  File No. 16-50  AN ORDINANCE  The County Board of Supervisors of the County of Milwaukee does ordain as follows:  Section 1. Section 50.041 is amended to read as follows:  50.041. – Zoo Railroad and Specimen Transfer-of funds.  (1) The zoological director or designee shall maintain the following funds-are hereby transferred from the zoological board of trustees to the county treasurer. The zoological director or designee shall, in consultation with the zoological society of the county, make all decisions concerning the use thereof, subject to general supervision of the county board.  (a) The zoo railroad fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, May 29, 1956, p. 682; June 23, 1964, p. 908). The fund shall receive all revenues from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and, in the discretion of the zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations;  (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it;  (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.	1 2	FROM THE OFFICE OF JOSPEH J. CZARNEZKI
File No. 16-50  File No. 16-50  AN ORDINANCE  The County Board of Supervisors of the County of Milwaukee does ordain as follows:  Section 1. Section 50.041 is amended to read as follows:  Section 1. Section 50.041 is amended to read as follows:  Section 1. Section 50.041 is amended to read as follows:  Social Transfer of funds.  (1) The zoological director or designee shall maintain the following funds are hereby transferred from the zeological board of trustees to the county treasurer. The zoological director or designee shall, in consultation with the zeological society of the county, make all decisions concerning the use thereof, subject to general supervision of the county board.  (a) The zoo railroad fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, May 29, 1956, p. 682_June 23, 1964, p. 908). The fund shall receive all revenues from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and, in the discretion of the zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations:  (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it;  (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoolgical director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for improvement of the	3	MILWAUKEE COUNTY CLERK
File No. 16-50  AN ORDINANCE  The County Board of Supervisors of the County of Milwaukee does ordain as follows:  Section 1. Section 50.041 is amended to read as follows:  50.041. – Zoo Railroad and Specimen Transfer of funds.  (1) The zoological director or designee shall maintain the following funds-are hereby transferred from the zoological board of trustees to the county treasurer. The zoological director or designee shall—in consultation with the zoological society of the county make all decisions concerning the use thereof, subject to general supervision of the county board.  (a) The zoo railroad fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, May 29, 1956, p. 682; June 23, 1964, p. 908). The fund shall receive all revenues from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and, in the discretion of the zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations; (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for e	5	County Ordinance No. 16-4
AN ORDINANCE  The County Board of Supervisors of the County of Milwaukee does ordain as follows:  Section 1. Section 50.041 is amended to read as follows:  50.041. – Zoo Railroad and Specimen Transfer of funds.  (1) The zoological director or designee shall maintain the following funds are hereby transferred from the zoological board of trustees to the county treasurer. The zoological director or designee shall, in consultation with the zoological society of the county, make all decisions concerning the use thereof, subject to general supervision of the county board.  (a) The zoo railroad fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, May 29, 1956, p. 682; June 23, 1964, p. 908). The fund shall receive all revenues from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and, in the discretion of the zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations; (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including astaff education and development expenses, and for		File No. 16-50
The County Board of Supervisors of the County of Milwaukee does ordain as follows:  Section 1. Section 50.041 is amended to read as follows:  50.041. – Zoo Railroad and Specimen Transfer of funds.  (1) The zoological director or designee shall maintain the following funds are hereby transferred from the zoological board of trustees to the county treasurer. The zoological director or designee shall, in consultation with the zoological society of the county, make all decisions concerning the use thereof, subject to general supervision of the county board.  (a) The zoo railroad fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, May 29, 1956, p. 682; June 23, 1964, p. 908). The fund shall receive all revenues from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and, in the discretion of the zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations: (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock: (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including ataff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conse		1 He 140. 10 00
The County Board of Supervisors of the County of Milwaukee does ordain as follows:  Section 1. Section 50.041 is amended to read as follows:  50.041. – Zoo Railroad and Specimen Transfer of funds.  (1) The zoological director or designee shall maintain the following funds are hereby transferred from the zoological board of trustees to the county treasurer. The zoological director or designee shall, in consultation with the zoological society of the county, make all decisions concerning the use thereof, subject to general supervision of the county board.  (a) The zoo railroad fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, May 29, 1956, p. 682; June 23, 1964, p. 908). The fund shall receive all revenues from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and, in the discretion of the zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations;  (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock;  (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it;  (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo co	9 10 11	AN ORDINANCE
50.041. – Zoo Railroad and Specimen Transfer of funds.  (1) The zoological director or designee shall maintain the following funds—are hereby transferred from the zoological board of trustees to the county treasurer. The zoological director or designee shall, in consultation with the zoological society of the county, make all decisions concerning the use thereof, subject to general supervision of the county board.  (a) The zoo railroad fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, May 29, 1956, p. 682; June 23, 1964, p. 908). The fund shall receive all revenues from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and, in the discretion of the zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations; (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.	13	The County Board of Supervisors of the County of Milwaukee does ordain as follows:
50.041. – Zoo Railroad and Specimen Transfer of funds.  (1) The zoological director or designee shall maintain the following funds are hereby transferred from the zoological board of trustees to the county treasurer. The zoological director or designee shall, in consultation with the zoological society of the county, make all decisions concerning the use thereof, subject to general supervision of the county board.  (a) The zoo railroad fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, May 29, 1956, p. 682; June 23, 1964, p. 908). The fund shall receive all revenues from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and, in the discretion of the zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations; (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.	15	Section 1. Section 50.041 is amended to read as follows:
(1) The zoological director or designee shall maintain the following funds are hereby transferred from the zoological board of trustees to the county treasurer. The zoological director or designee shall, in consultation with the zoological society of the county, make all decisions concerning the use thereof, subject to general supervision of the county board.  (a) The zoo railroad fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, May 29, 1956, p. 682; June 23, 1964, p. 908). The fund shall receive all revenues from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and, in the discretion of the zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations; (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.	17	50.041 Zoo Railroad and Specimen Transfer of funds.
transferred from the zoological board of trustees to the county treasurer. The zoological director or designee shall, in consultation with the zoological society of the county, make all decisions concerning the use thereof, subject to general supervision of the county board.  (a) The zoo railroad fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, May 29, 1956, p. 682; June 23, 1964, p. 908). The fund shall receive all revenues from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and, in the discretion of the zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:-  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations; (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.		(1) The zoological director or designee shall maintain the following funds are hereby director or designee shall, in consultation with the zoological society of the county, make all decisions concerning the use thereof, subject to general supervision of the county board.  (a) The zoo railroad fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, May 29, 1956, p. 682; June 23, 1964, p. 908). The fund shall receive all revenues from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and, in the discretion of the zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations; (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.	20
all decisions concerning the use thereof, subject to general supervision of the county board.  (a) The zoo railroad fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, May 29, 1956, p. 682; June 23, 1964, p. 908). The fund shall receive all revenues from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and, in the discretion of the zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:-  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations: (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.	21
(a) The zoo railroad fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, May 29, 1956, p. 682; June 23, 1964, p. 908). The fund shall receive all revenues from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and, in the discretion of the zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:-  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations; (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions. (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.	22
Proceedings, May 29, 1956, p. 682; June 23, 1964, p. 908). The fund shall receive all revenues from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and, in the discretion of the zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations; (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions. (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.	23	board.
revenues from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and, in the discretion of the zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations; (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions. (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.	24	(a) The zoo railroad fund established by the county board (Journal of zoo director, any other revenues from other zoo attractions and activities or unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:-  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations; (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.	25
donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations; (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions. (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.	26
following order of priority:-  (1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations; (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions. (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.	27
(1) Defraying the cost of railroad operations; (2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions. (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.	28
(2) Replacement, additions, extensions and/or improvement of the railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock; (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions. (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.	29
railroad, including its road bed and rolling stock;  (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it;  (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.
33 (3) Purchase of additional train(s), when in the determination of the zoo director patronage and public demand warrant it; 35 (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions. 36 (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.
director patronage and public demand warrant it;  (4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.
(4) Acquiring animals and related expenses and for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.
improvement of the zoo, including additional attractions.  (b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.
(b) The zoo specimen fund established by the county board (Journal of Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.		\
Proceedings, February 2, 1937, p. 811). The fund shall receive revenues from the sale of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.
of animals and, in the discretion of the zoological director or designee, the fund may also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.
also receive revenues from zoo attractions and activities, other than from the operation of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.
of the railroad and zoomobiles, and from unrestricted donations. The fund may be used for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.		- for expenditures for acquiring animals and related expenses, for the benefit and/or improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.
improvement of the zoo, including staff education and development expenses, and for expenses related to zoo conservation programs.
expenses related to zoo conservation programs.		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
43	45

46	(2c) Other trust funds. The Railroad Trust Fund and the Specimen Fund (d) The zoo
47	specimen fund, including proceeds from the sale of surplus animals, shall be carried
48	over from one (1) year to the next.
49	(3e) The funds shall be invested by the county treasurer.
50	(4f) Interest from funds. Interest from investment income on the trust funds is to be
51	credited to the trust-funds and not the county general fund.
52
53	Section 2. The provisions of this ordinance shall be effective upon passage and
54	publication.
55
56
57
58	Adopted by the Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors
59	February 4, 2016