Expressway Patrol Case Study

Wisconsin State Statute 59.84(10)(b) Expressways and mass transit facilities in populous counties

"Expressways shall be policed by the sheriff who may, when necessary, request and shall receive cooperation and assistance from the police departments of each municipality in which expressways are located, but nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to deprive such police departments of the power of exercising law enforcement on such expressways within their respective jurisdictions."

Milwaukee County is the only county in Wisconsin that is responsible for patrolling its expressways. The State Highway Patrol has responsibility for expressways in all other Counties.

Medicaid Expansion

- In states that have expanded Medicaid, private insurance has an average 7% lower cost because more people are covered by Medicaid. Lower private insurance costs would reduce the county's expense for employee and retiree health care.
- Wisconsin employees pay Medicaid taxes that are expanding coverage in other states but not here.

Status of State Medicaid Expansion Decisions

NOTES: Current status for each state is based on KFF tracking and analysis of state activity. Expansion is adopted but not yet implemented in ID, ME, NE, and UT. (See link below for additional state-specific notes).

- Changes to existing shared revenue programs
- Changes to reimbursements or county/state fee splits
- Medicaid issue
