~~Phoebe Williams~~

As a former legal academic, practicing attorney, and government administrator I have over three decades of experience considering issues that relate to personnel matters.

EXPERIENCE

AUGUST 1985 – MAY 2014

LAW PROFESSOR, MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL

As a tenured member of the Law School Faculty, my teaching, research and scholarship focused on issues that concerned labor and employment law. When serving as Chair of the Law School Committee on Diversity, the Committee produced and implemented the Law School's Diversity Plan. I served as Chair of the University President's Committee on Gender Equity. The Gender Equity Committee produced and published a comprehensive report that assessed the climate and perceptions of gender equity along with the impact of gender on promotions and salary determinations for women faculty.

AUGUST 1981 – AGUST 1985

ASSOCIATE ATTORNEY, LINDNER AND MARSACK, S.C.

As an Associate Attorney with a firm that practiced solely in the area of labor and employment law, I represented and counseled employers on matters which concerned a variety of labor and employment law issues such as: discharges, employment discrimination, and arbitration of grievances alleging violations of collective bargaining agreements.

APRIL 1968- AUGUST 1978

ADMINISTRATOR AND CLAIMS REPRESENTATIVE, SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

Manager, August 1977-August 1978; Supervisor, 1976-1977, Claims Representative, 1968-1975. As Manager of a large urban branch office I directed program operations, public relations and labor relations activities for a staff of approximately forty supervisory, professional and clerical employees.
