

Senior Statesman Program

March 25 - March 27, 2020

A Senior Statesman is “an eminent senior member of the community who unofficially advises current leaders.” You can become a Senior Statesman for your generation through the Milwaukee County Department on Aging’s Senior Statesman program.

The Senior Statesman program will:

- Provide you with an understanding of legislative decision-making.
- Equip you with tools and strategies to influence policy-makers.
- Inform you of the public policy issues facing older adults today.

*“Sometimes it falls upon a generation to be great.
You can be that great generation.
Let your greatness blossom.”*

- Nelson Mandela

Program Details

- Tour the Milwaukee County Transit Center
- Have Lunch with the County Executive
- Meet with the County Board Chair & County Officials
- Dialogue with Wisconsin State Legislators
- Learn New Advocacy Skills
- Attend a Commission on Aging Meeting
