

Saint John's Annual Symposium offers a clear-eyed vision for confident aging in changing times.

Featuring experts in the field of aging, theater and music performances, and opportunities to participate in spiritual and creative practices.

March 8-12, 2020

Saint John's Residents & Club Members

Register Soon – Seating is Limited.

Go to your portal or www.SymposiumOnAging.org
for a Schedule of Events and CEHs

For a discounted rate, use a registration form from Resident Services.
(Please do not register online.)

Featured Lectures and Speakers

Ageism Today: Fear AGEISM, not AGING
Margaret Morganroth Gullette, Ph.D.

The Secret to Staying Alive: Independence and Inequality in American Home Care
Elana D. Buch, Ph.D.

Re-Imagining Aging the Hard and Beautiful Way: Lessons from Dementia
Mark P. Freeman, Ph.D.

Aging Black: Growing Old in a Post-Soul World
Otis Moss III, M.Div., D.Min.

The New Reality of Aging Diversity
Ronald J. Angel, Ph.D.
Jaqueline L. Angel, Ph.D.

Old, Out and Proud:
The Legacy of LGBTQ Aging
Serena Worthington, M.A.
Jacqueline Boyd, B.A., B.S., C.G.C.M.
Loree Cook-Daniels, M.A., M.S.
Britta Larson, M.A.
Paul Masterson, M.A.
Tony Snell Rodriguez

Life Story Writing for Elders: A Film and Workshop
Thomas Cole, Ph.D.

Called to Care: How Modern Families
Live the Honor Commandment
Amy Zietlow, M.Div.

Riding the Dragon: Preventing Secondary Stress and Strengthening Your Inner Life in Challenging Times
Robert J. Wicks, Psy.D.

Movie: All the Lonely People
With discussion by director Stu Maddux and producer Joseph Applebaum

Redemption and Acceptance: Two Stories that Promote Clear-Eyed (and Healthy) Aging in America Today
Dan McAdams, Ph.D.

The Art of Community
Charles H. Vogl, M.Div.