<ul> <li>Report from the Director, Department of Health and Human Services, requesting authorization to amend 2020 Disabilities Services Division purchase of service contracts with Birth to 3 agencies, by recommending adoption of the following:</li> <li>A REVISED RESOLUTION</li> <li>WHEREAS, the Disabilities Services Division (DSD), Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), administers the Birth to Three Program/Early Intervention services in Milwaukee County to infants and toddlers with developmental delays or disabilities; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, services under this Federal entitlement are provided by contracted community-based agencies that have significant expertise in this area; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4 million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase and counties across the State State State State State for additional funding, which was included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin County Human Services Association; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the 2020 DHHS contract with the State for Social Services and</li> </ul>	1	File No. 20-231
<ul> <li>authorization to amend 2020 Disabilities Services Division purchase of service contracts with Birth to 3 agencies, by recommending adoption of the following:</li> <li>A REVISED RESOLUTION</li> <li>WHEREAS, the Disabilities Services Division (DSD), Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), administers the Birth to Three Program/Early Intervention services in Milwaukee County to infants and toddlers with developmental delays or disabilities; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, services under this Federal entitlement are provided by contracted community-based agencies that have significant expertise in this area; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4 million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase and counties across the State State State State and Cessfully advocated for additional funding, which was included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>with Birth to 3 agencies, by recommending adoption of the following:</li> <li>A REVISED RESOLUTION</li> <li>WHEREAS, the Disabilities Services Division (DSD), Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), administers the Birth to Three Program/Early Intervention services in Milwaukee County to infants and toddlers with developmental delays or disabilities; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, services under this Federal entitlement are provided by contracted community-based agencies that have significant expertise in this area; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4 million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>
A REVISED RESOLUTION         WHEREAS, the Disabilities Services Division (DSD), Department of Health and         Human Services (DHHS), administers the Birth to Three Program/Early Intervention         services in Milwaukee County to infants and toddlers with developmental delays or         disabilities; and         WHEREAS, services under this Federal entitlement are provided by contracted         community-based agencies that have significant expertise in this area; and         WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4         million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic         County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and         WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed         their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully         reimbursed due to budget limitations; and         WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last         several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase         and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was         included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and         WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time         annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin         County Human Services Association; and </td <th></th> <td></td>
A REVISED RESOLUTION         8       WHEREAS, the Disabilities Services Division (DSD), Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), administers the Birth to Three Program/Early Intervention services in Milwaukee County to infants and toddlers with developmental delays or disabilities; and         11       WHEREAS, services under this Federal entitlement are provided by contracted community-based agencies that have significant expertise in this area; and         12       WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4         13       WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4         14       million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic         12       County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and         14       WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed         15       their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully         16       WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last         17       WHEREAS, the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was         18       included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and         19       WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time         19       WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time         10       WHEREAS, the State Department of Heal		with Birth to 3 agencies, by recommending adoption of the following:
<ul> <li>WHEREAS, the Disabilities Services Division (DSD), Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), administers the Birth to Three Program/Early Intervention services in Milwaukee County to infants and toddlers with developmental delays or disabilities; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, services under this Federal entitlement are provided by contracted community-based agencies that have significant expertise in this area; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4 million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>WHEREAS, the Disabilities Services Division (DSD), Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), administers the Birth to Three Program/Early Intervention services in Milwaukee County to infants and toddlers with developmental delays or disabilities; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, services under this Federal entitlement are provided by contracted community-based agencies that have significant expertise in this area; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4 million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>		A REVISED RESOLUTION
<ul> <li>Human Services (DHHS), administers the Birth to Three Program/Early Intervention services in Milwaukee County to infants and toddlers with developmental delays or disabilities; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, services under this Federal entitlement are provided by contracted community-based agencies that have significant expertise in this area; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4 million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>		WHEREAS the Dischilition Services Division (DSD) Department of Health and
<ul> <li>services in Milwaukee County to infants and toddlers with developmental delays or disabilities; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, services under this Federal entitlement are provided by contracted community-based agencies that have significant expertise in this area; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4 million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>disabilities; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, services under this Federal entitlement are provided by contracted community-based agencies that have significant expertise in this area; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4</li> <li>million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>
WHEREAS, services under this Federal entitlement are provided by contracted community-based agencies that have significant expertise in this area; and WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4 million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully reimbursed due to budget limitations; and WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin County Human Services Association; and
<ul> <li>WHEREAS, services under this Federal entitlement are provided by contracted</li> <li>community-based agencies that have significant expertise in this area; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4</li> <li>million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic</li> <li>County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed</li> <li>their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully</li> <li>reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last</li> <li>several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase</li> <li>and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was</li> <li>included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time</li> <li>annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin</li> <li>County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>community-based agencies that have significant expertise in this area; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4</li> <li>million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic</li> <li>County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed</li> <li>their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully</li> <li>reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last</li> <li>several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase</li> <li>and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was</li> <li>included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time</li> <li>annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin</li> <li>County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>		WHEREAS services under this Federal entitlement are provided by contracted
<ul> <li>WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4</li> <li>million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic</li> <li>County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed</li> <li>their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully</li> <li>reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last</li> <li>several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase</li> <li>and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was</li> <li>included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time</li> <li>annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin</li> <li>County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4</li> <li>million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic</li> <li>County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed</li> <li>their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully</li> <li>reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last</li> <li>several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase</li> <li>and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was</li> <li>included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time</li> <li>annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin</li> <li>County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>million and is supported by a variety of revenue sources: tax levy, Potawatomi, Basic</li> <li>County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed</li> <li>their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully</li> <li>reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last</li> <li>several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase</li> <li>and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was</li> <li>included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time</li> <li>annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin</li> <li>County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>		WHEREAS, the Birth to Three Program reflects a total 2020 budget of about $5.4
<ul> <li>County Allocation, as well as State of Wisconsin (the State) funding; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed</li> <li>their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully</li> <li>reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last</li> <li>several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase</li> <li>and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was</li> <li>included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time</li> <li>annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin</li> <li>County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed</li> <li>their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully</li> <li>reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last</li> <li>several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase</li> <li>and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was</li> <li>included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time</li> <li>annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin</li> <li>County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully</li> <li>reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last</li> <li>several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase</li> <li>and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was</li> <li>included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time</li> <li>annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin</li> <li>County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>reimbursed due to budget limitations; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last</li> <li>several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase</li> <li>and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was</li> <li>included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time</li> <li>annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin</li> <li>County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>		WHEREAS, Birth to Three provider agencies generally incur costs that exceed
<ul> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last</li> <li>several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase</li> <li>and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was</li> <li>included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time</li> <li>annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin</li> <li>County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>	22	their contract amounts due to the increased demand for services and are not fully
<ul> <li>WHEREAS, State and Federal funding has remained stagnant for the last</li> <li>several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase</li> <li>and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was</li> <li>included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time</li> <li>annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin</li> <li>County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>	23	reimbursed due to budget limitations; and
<ul> <li>several years, yet the cost to operate the Birth to Three Program continues to increase</li> <li>and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was</li> <li>included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time</li> <li>annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin</li> <li>County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>	24
<ul> <li>and counties across the State successfully advocated for additional funding, which was</li> <li>included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time</li> <li>annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin</li> <li>County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time</li> <li>annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin</li> <li>County Human Services Association; and</li> </ul>	26
WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin County Human Services Association; and
WHEREAS, the State Department of Health Services has allocated this one-time annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin County Human Services Association; and		included in the State's 2019-2021 Budget; and
<ul> <li>annual funding increase of $1,125,000 based on a recommendation from the Wisconsin</li> <li>County Human Services Association; and</li> <li>33</li> </ul>
County Human Services Association; and 33
	-	County Human Services Association; and
		WHEREAS the 2020 DHHS contract with the State for Social Services and 35 Community Programs is being amended to reflect a total increase of $362,509; and 36
37 WHEREAS, amendments totaling $362,509 to Birth to Three provider contracts		WHEREAS amendments totaling $362,509 to Birth to Three provider contracts
38 would provide needed financial resources to partner agencies and further assist them in
39 meeting State/Federal requirements; and	-
40
41 WHEREAS, the Committee on Finance and Audit, at its meeting of March 18,		WHEREAS, the Committee on Finance and Audit, at its meeting of March 18.
42 2020, recommended adoption of File No. 20-231 (vote 6-0); now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, the Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors hereby authorizes the Director, Department of Health and Human Service, or her designee, to execute amendments to 2020 Purchase of Service Contracts with the following Birth to Three providers in the following amounts:

Agency		2020 Recommended Amendment	Adjusted 2020 Contract
Curative	$2,079,218	$166,754	$2,245,972
Milwaukee Center for Independence	$517,241	$39,876	$557,117
Penfield Children's Center	$1,382,394	$112,378	$1,494,772
St. Francis Children's Center	$546,253	$43,501	$589,754
Total	$4,525,106	$362,509	$4,887,615

51 srb

52 03/18/2020

53 S:\Committees\2020\Mar\F&A\Resolutions\20-231 REVISED RESOLUTION.docx