Subject: Department of Human Resources File 20-722 Attorney Union Contract Ratification Referral Response

During the October, 2020, Finance Committee discussion of File 20-722 regarding the ratification of the 2020 Memorandum of Agreement between Milwaukee County and the bargaining unit for the Association of Milwaukee County Attorneys (AMCA), Supervisor Moore Omokunde requested information, using a racial equity lens, on the AMCA membership, and to provide data on the racial makeup of AMCA members. Below is the response to this question.

The Association of Milwaukee County Attorneys (AMCA) has a total of fifty-two (52) positions in their membership. Currently, forty-nine (49) positions are occupied. The racial makeup of AMCA membership is listed below. The Department of Human Resources is working to help all departments increase racial and gender representation across Milwaukee County. As positions are created, and/or become vacant within AMCA, and other represented and non-represented groups, our goal is to work directly with leadership to develop strategies to attract diverse candidates.
