Anticipated Updates to Administrative Orders

- Expect all orders to continue to stay in place, with updates made as pandemic continues to unfold
- As we look beyond 2021, the County is considering how will administer COVID-related policies contained in Admin Orders today
- There is a working group in place that is reviewing the future of the 11 orders in place. Some orders:
 - Will naturally expire at end of year
 - Others will be incorporated into longer-term County administrative policy
 - Others will be kept in place in short term to continue to manage the COVID pandemic
