Supervisor Mayo, Sr., requested the verbal report presented to Committee be submitted in writing. This report should include a breakdown of staff, i.e. nurses, certified nursing assistants, and all other staff, that were required to work mandatory overtime shifts and also provide staff turnover percentages.

Supervisor Bowen requested to be provided with specific information regarding the retention bonus.

Madame Chair requested that for the March meeting cycle, she would like an all inclusive report that addresses the concerns raised by the Committee; reflects staffing level numbers and percentages; and that also answers the questions as to where BHD is now, what has BHD done, and what can be done in regards to the staffing levels.

The following people appeared and spoke regarding this item:

Jeff Weber, Wisconsin Federation of Nurses and Health Professionals
David Eisner, AFSCME, District Council 48

This item was DISCUSSED WITH NO ACTION TAKEN.
